Home Entertainment, Inc.

The ultimate question for any megagamer... "what is the most advanced home system on the market?" I would like to settle this once and for all! Take a look at the facts...

Everyone seems to be talking about the new 32-bit processors and the 64-bit system. The 32-bit processor is not exactly new and the 64-bit system is yet to be seen. It has been said many times that to release a true blue 32-bit processor to a NTSC standard television (regular television) would be a waste of time and a waste of money. They would literally have to include a special monitor with all 32-bit and 64-bit systems (ie. FM-Towns 32-bit system with VGA monitor). To show all of you who doubt SNK HOME ENTER-TAINMENT, INC. and NEO•GEO, the single 32-bit processor would cost more than the NEO•GEO system. A processor can process information all day long but without the proper chips to assist it, it is not going to look any better than an 8bit or 16-bit processor. The costs of making the system, the support chips, the design and cost of the circuit boards, plus a special monitor, is higher than the nations trade deficit!

CD-ROM is the "wave of the future."
Although this technology may be something to get excited about, it has yet to be perfected for video game use. The access time or lag time is the downfall of the CD games.

Nintendo and Sega are both currently in the process of developing CD-ROM for the their 16-bit systems.

Nintendo will have two different CD-ROM systems and they won't even be compatible with one another. The Sega CD-ROM is planned for release sometime in the future. Even with the new 16-bit processor, the hardware design hampers the CD-

ROM. Sega enthusiasts boast the CD memory capabilities. WOW! INCREDIBLE! BIG DEAL?! It takes them close to a year to program a 4megabit game. How long will it take them to program anything with memory that even resembles that of the NEO•GEO? Keep in mind that CD is capable of vast storage capacity and both Sega and Nintendo will only be utilizing approximately 20% of its full memory capability. It still doesn't compare to the NEO•GEO's 4,096 simultaneously displayed colors, 380 Sprites, and full-screen multi-layers. Anyone who knows CD-ROM knows that any access time (time it takes while loading) is like an eternity of waiting compared with NEO•GEO's zero access time. Unlike Sega and Nintendo, we don't make you buy add-ons to get quality games. They have come to the edge of their limit and to try and compete with NEO•GEO would mean buying yet another add-on!

65,536 colors, 4,096 simultaneously displayed at one time, 15 stereo sound tracks, 380 sprites and multilayer screens that fill the entire screen. All this, instantaneous memory access, omni-directional scrolling and rotation, enlarging shrinking, fade and scaling! This entire 330 MEG package of power comes in one complete set and you will never have to buy add-ons or a monitor to compete with the other guys. For the record, "what is the most advanced video game system in the world?" NEO•GEO, a professional arcade system with the same hardware found in our No. 1 selling Multi-Video System is the only answer for any megagamer. A friend of mine once said, "NEO•GEO is bigger, badder, better," and I say, NEO•GEO is the Real Deal.

HE GAME LORD SPEAKS

To put it in words... to write it down... that is walking on hallowed ground, but it is my duty. I am the Game Lord and one of my specialities is to say things that cause havoc, debates, and arguments. In the last episode of TGLS, I made a statement about our memory capability and it has gotten blown way out of proportion! Michael Baldeon informed me that people on Worldnet and Prodigy were debating that issue, and I can honestly say that half of them didn't believe the Immortal Game Lord. It's really quite shocking, but it doesn't matter because NEO•GEO obviously has the best graphics and sound of all systems. Crossed Swords (50 MEGs) is visually one of the strongest games around.

Any computer artist or programmer can tell you we don't cut any corner when it comes down to it.

One question that many people ask me, "Will NEO•GEO come out with a Handheld?" SNK will not release a portable system like NEO•GEO Advanced Home Entertainment System. You see, when a video game company starts making handhelds, that means they have to split up the work force. Instead of having the whole Research and Development staff working just on their home system and developing more games for it, some of the programmers have to develop handheld software. When our competitors release an 8-bit system, 16-bit system, CD-ROM, and a handheld, and have to write software for each system, it could get ugly. This is not the style of NEO•GEO, therefore, we will not release a handheld. Our 12 third party companies and SNK's 300 programmers strong Research and Development staff will never worry about handhelds and can concentrate on the only professional video game system on Earth.

How many times do you hear Nintendo or Sega claiming arcade quality graphics? What happens when you buy their game and the graphics (the sound is even worse) are not even close to arcade games? Aren't you tired of it all? Finally, one system with everything you want from a video game system... the NEO•GEO is here. The only true professional arcade hardware and software. Sounds like it could be an advertisement, don't you think?

People think that Chad and I downplay the Sega and Nintendo, but don't get us wrong, we like Sega and Nintendo. See for yourselves, though, because when you want the best game system in the world, Quality is what you expect... and get from SNK, Home Entertainment, Inc.

THE MULTI-LINK FEATURE

One thing that the Handhelds have that most home video game systems lack is what we call the Multi-link feature. A feature first seen on computers and in arcades. The Multi-link is the ability to connect two or more complete NEO•GEO systems together. Both systems run parallel and each player is playing interactively in the game. NEO•GEO Multi-link cartridges have a port where the Multi-link cable is plugged into and instead of making you buy a special cable from SNK, you can use a

RIDING HERO

42 MEGs

NO MATTER HOW YOU ADD IT UP,

standard phono-jack to phonojack connection cable for the Multi-link cable.

Multi-link will add new dimensions to gaming and bring a whole new meaning to the words, "2-player simultaneous game play." In the arcades, games like Cyberball 2072, Final Lap, Cadash, Steel Talons, and Chicago's battletech center have incorporated the Multi-link feature into their games. Cyberball 2072 shows how we can make a football game (vertical scrolling) that hides plays, always gives us a good perspective (I hate playing defense going down the screen), and is the best four player football game ever. The other games show that simulator racing, helicopter, Mechwarrior, and jet plane games can only be played (more than 1 player simultaneous) with a Multi-link action. Our Riding Hero (42 MEGs) is a great example of this. Although League Bowling's (26 MEGs) Multi-link is purely used for 4-player simultaneous play, at least everyone knows that we have that capability.

The NEO•GEO Advanced Home Entertainment System has 330 MEG capability, 380 sprites (16x512), and the processor speed of 12.5 megahertz. This means that because of our huge memory capacity, we will have Multi-link games with play fields as large as life. You can also be sure that because of our processor speed and number of sprites, our 4-player simultaneous games won't flicker and slow down as much as the other guys. All in all, with the power of the NEO•GEO and Multi-link capability, the future can only look bright for the only true professional video game system. NEO•GEO is the Real Deal.

CROSSED SWORDS

One thousand years ago, the evil of the man Nausizz devastated the land of Belcana, but fell into a deep, dark, sleep. During his timely slumber, the mage Katasis built a powerful kngdom by uniting several countries in the near vicinity.

Suddenly, a huge castle rose in the Krugia Mountain after only one night. Nausizz had awakened, and his appetite for evil was large. The valiant knights of Angster had no special skills with which to battle against the magical evil of Nausizz and his enthralls.

Eventually, two brave knights, Edmond and Richard stepped forward and set out to destroy Nausizz once and for all. These two heroes have special magic and attacks that match their pure intentions and good will. When Nausizz kidnaps the fair princess Clore, their hearts are filled with a rage that cannot be denied. Help them banish the evil in Belcana!

In the first area, you learn of the treacherous wrong-doings of the Nausizz armies.

Journey to the Tower of Matius to thwart the demons flocking there. Your task becomes much harder now, but the rewards are great!

Buy new weaponry from Raoster. The elusive Scarecrow sword holds a mystery.

Traveling in the forest, it is best to bring a friend! Dab Gobrins are around every turn.

Many of your enemies reappear in stronger, faster, more intelligent versions. You will need to use all of your skills to survive.

Each new weapon has a better magical power and more attack strength. Some magics are defensive, while other are offense.

PUTTER RAT

This is the weakest enemy you'll face in the battlefield.

PUTTER RAT II

RED WORM

The Red Worm has even worse breath than its brother.

DEMON GOAT

The Demon Goat cannot be hurt while he spins.

DRAGON FLY

The sting of the Dragon Fly is deadly. Block low.

UP+A+B

The first special attack consists of mystical charging of your life force, which is then transferred into your weapon and released toward your opponent. Since this attack shoots at enemies in the background as well as in the foreground, it can provide a powerful ace in the hole against certain area bosses. This uses life points, unfortunately.

A+B

The second special attack is certainly the most devestating! In certain cases, you can wipe out the entire life bar of your opponent! When you press A and B simultaneously, you will use your fierce training as a knight and slice your opponent to ribbons in a flurry of slash-attacks. This wears you out a little, but it can prove invaluable in battle.

DOWN+A+B

The last special attack is a powerful burst of purity that comes straight from your soul. This flash of goodness weakens evil creatures, and in some cases, destroys them entirely. This special attack can be vital in close one-on-one encounters with the enemy. It will not damage far away enemies, but it will knock back even the strongest foe.

In any sport or competitive event, being the best is the highest honor to achieve. But, the road to being the best can be "Fatal." Jeff Bogard was the reputed best in street fighting and was a threat to evil men like Geese Howard. To control Southtown, Geese kills Jeff and no one was left to oppose him. Ten years later, Jeff's sons, Terry and Andy Bogard set out to avenge their father's death. Howard's control has grown so big that the only way to get to Geese is to compete in the King of Fighters Tournament.

Choose between three characters on your way to Geese. Joe Higashi uses Taiboxing martial arts and is fast with his kick. Terry Bogard trained on the streets and developed his own street fighting style. Andy Bogard, younger brother of Terry, uses karate and has the easiest special attacks. Each character has more than 4 special moves each included with the standard kicking and punching attacks. Play against a friend or play 2 against the computer and fight each other.

Fatal Fury: King of Fighters is one-on-one competition fighting at its best. Superb graphics, fluid animation, and a NEO•GEO quality soundtrack make this the greatest home game ever! This game will definitely be talked about for years, and because of the two player competition, I don't think your friends will ever let you put this in the closet. Only games of this magnitude get dubbed, "The Game Lord's Pick of the Month!"

SNK's NEO•GEO is synonymous with state of the art video gaming entertainment. Behind all the fun is a hardware system so advanced it allows us to pioneer New Frontiers in video entertainment.

NEO•GEO is capable of displaying 4096 colors from a palette of 65,536 colors. The immense color palette allows for full motion quality images and without colors there could be no graphics. The 15 stereo sound channels (7 devoted to speech) literally intensifies the total game experience. In the past home video games had bleeps, and blips for sound. NOW, NEO•GEO's power pounds out full audio soundtracks and real voice speech. You can expect kicking music including every instrument imaginable in each and every NEO•GEO title. As for action, NEO•GEO can handle 380 scores, previously unheard of storage potential, and detailed sprites and graphics. To top it all off, the processor speed of 12.5 Mhz eliminates nearly all of the flickering, slowdown, and "problems" seen on other gaming systems. All this raw power is driven and directed by custom-made SNK pro-chips only to be found on the monster of video games, the NEO•GEO.

All this, omni-directional scrolling, rotation, enlarging, shrinking, fade, and scaling is achieved by utilizing the same hardware and software found in our best selling Multi-Video System. LATERS TO NEO-GEO

SNK HOME ENTERTAINMENT, INC. 20603 Earl Street Torrance, CA 90503

Dear SNK HOME ENTERTAINMENT, INC.,

I can't compliment you enough on the great job you've done creating the best video game system I've seen yet. Obviously you have blown away the competition competing with Nintendo, Sega, and NEC. Your games look exactly like the arcade games and I can't tell the difference. Good luck in the future.

Sincerely, Erik Klemm Newton, NJ Dear SNK:

First of all, I thank you for making the BEST VIDEO GAME IN HOME ENTERTAINMENT HISTORY, "THE NEO*GEO". You don't know how it feels to play an action game at home that is exactly like the arcade which makes your hair stick out like getting electrically charged through your body and your hair gets spiked and hard like glue. I also thank you for sending me the NEO*GEO Magazine, I was very surprised when I got it and I could not believe my eyes when I saw the type of graphics some games had.

Metin Hatipoglu Wiestin, Ontario, Canada Dear SNK.

I recently purchased a NEO•GEO Gold System. I own a Genesis, SNES, NEC, NES, and a computer and spend lots of money on software. The NEO•GEO is far more greater than any other home system around. I saw your ad in my gaming magazine. My favorite game is Sengoku. Whoever designed it, I'd like to shake their hands.

My friends purchased a Genesis, a SNES, and NEC and none of them could compare with the NEO•GEO. They all come over and play Sengoku. NEO•GEO is Awesome. I'd just like to say you guys out there are doing a heck of a job, and I'd like to see more carts like Sengoku.

Sincerely,

Young Kim Alex Virginia

Dear SNK,

I own the following video game systems; the NES, Sega Master System, and the Sega Genesis which I like very much. As much as I like these systems I can't tell you how much I praise the NEO+GEO!! My friend and I have played several versions of your NEO+GEO arcade and we love them all! I think, by far, the best game is Magician Lord. In my opinion Magician Lord is the most graphically realistic game I have ever played.

I would like to give my thanks to you for making it possible to play the NEO•GEO arcade with only one token. Each time we visit the arcade I find that most of the games that require more than one token are really not that exciting and fun than you expect from such a game. Your NEO•GEO is the arcade that my friends and I put our money into most often. Your NEO•GEO home system is a very powerful gaming system that every system I know pales in comparison to the advanced entertainment system.

Tim Carlock Durant, OK

Hey Guys,

I really enjoyed your article about your Neo-Geo, it really made me sit up and think. I have owned the Nes and the Turbo, and I currently own the Sega Genesis and Super NES. I bought the Super NES yesterday. But today, after reading your article, I realize these systems are underpowered and that you are getting less for your money Your cost per Meg. comparison is really informative. I've been playing the Neo-Geo for about a year now, and to tell you the truth, I always knew it was the best, oh yeah, I played it in the arcades.

I'm kicking myself for not getting the Neo, I put about $250 into the NES, about $400 into the Turbo, about $1800 into the Genesis, and around $300 into the SNES. I knew these systems had software support. I never knew you did. Also, I'm a big football fan. I see you've got a football game coming out. I'm excited. Well, I'll stop for now. Keep the games coming and I'll have your system Christmas of 92. Keep up the great work.

THE GAME LORD SPEAKS

SNK Home Entertainment, Inc. has been setting new standards in video games since the release of the untouchable NEO•GEO. This advanced new technology has sparked some of the greatest new software available and cannot be denied of the licensees it deserves. In the year that has passed, SNK devoted much time to 11 new third party software companies and nearly 100 new SNK programmers to ensure that NEO•GEO software would not falter. We knew that in the long run, these licensees would become the new leaders in software and you, the megagaming NEO•GEO fanatic, would only benefit from this strategy.

Now, the Third party licensees have come of age and will be putting out tremendous titles such as Andro Dunos, Viewpoint, and Ninja Commando. Without the worry of assisting the third party licensees, SNK has the time and man power to work on the long awaited high Meg games. Games that not only finally tap into the power of the NEO•GEO, but games that will break boundaries in memory, gameplay, playfields, and depth. Games that will only be found on the only professional home system, NEO•GEO.

ANDRO DUNOS

By the fourth quarter of 1992, NEO•GEO will have the software titles that reach a plateau which other video game systems can only dream of reaching. This new software is commonly coined "second wave software". NEO•GEO's second wave software will have intricate gameplay and complex playfields, including more character abilities than ever before seen. The new software will be involved and intense and these games will use a monumental amount of Megs. High Meg games are what you have all been waiting for.

Meg is a measurement of information and without it, the high powered NEO•GEO could not be fueled. You already know what's under the hood of a NEO•GEO and now, SNK will show what it can do. We have the time and power to blow the doors off the other systems.

Imprinted on the hood is: NEO•GEO, Max 330 Mega, Pro-Gear Spec, and Advanced Entertainment System.
Let's backtrack. Advanced Entertainment System means Monster of video game systems. Pro-Gear Spec means professional gear specifications. Max 330 Mega means capable of 330 Megs maximum and NEO•GEO means when you want the best game system in the world.
Quality is what you can expect...from SNK Home Entertainment, Inc.

NINJA COMMANDO

Dear Game Lord: Thank you for making 2020 Super Baseball. I have not been able to stop

Dear Game Lord:

SNK has combined the one-onone martial arts action of Street Fighter II with the down-and-dirty street tactics of Final Fight to create a game better than either in Fatal Fury. You can choose from three unique fighters and journey from city to city, defeating the top warriors in the world en route to Geese Howard, the "King of Fighters." Along the way, you'll encounter bonus stages where you arm wrestle a hulkster for bonus points. In the two-player mode, you and a friend first take on the computer and then each other in a fight to see who gets to continue playing. The characters are huge, and the special attacks awesomelike Burning Knuckles and the Hurricane Uppercut. Fatal Fury is headto-head fighting at it's best!

Matt Neopolitan Cookeville, TN

playing since I first brought it home. 2020 Super Baseball is the game sports fans have been waiting their whole lives for. The gameplay and graphics are simply incredible. The true scaling and rotation in 2020 Super Baseball make Nintendo's Mode 7 look like child's play. The graphics and motion make you feel like you are at the ballpark. But graphics presentation are only half the package. Baseball 2020 offers so much more than a "regular" baseball game. The addition of landmines as the game progresses make a routine fly ball an adventure. The jump zones on the warning track give a new meaning to the term "a leaping catch." Change pitchers, pinch hit, steal, bunt, and construct new players, it is all here. Baseball 2020 also gives you much more. Each player has individual ratings in several categories. You can ricochet hits off of the walls and barriers, make diving catches, and listen to the incredible sound. Too bad Nintendo and Sega, Neo-Geo has proven once again that it is the real deal.

Dear Game Lord:

Looking for a game with so much heart-pounding, palm-sweating action that you just can't stop playing it? Then Soccer Brawl for the Neo•Geo is for you! Soccer Brawl is a cross between indoor soccer and Street Fighter II. Like a traditional soccer game, the object is to score more goals than your opponent. But that's where tradition and Soccer Brawl part company. Armed players make Soccer Brawl more exciting than any mere sports simulation. Players can power-up for a super shot when on offense, blast members of the other team when on defense. Shoulder tackles and sliding tackles are also a part of your defensive repetoire.

There are eight teams to choose from and every team has their own Power Shot - a weapon of the team's Head Master (team captain). When the Head Master is powered up, he can unleash a Power Shot that rockets towards the opposing goal, unleashing destruction on anyone that gets in its way.

Soccer Brawl has a difficulty setting for any level of player, and you can play against the computer or a friend. When you've gained some skill, try your luck in the seven-round tournament. Any way you play it, Soccer Brawl has the most pulse palpitating action of any sports cart to date.

A unique split screen is used when base runners are present. position. Also, every current batter has his own baseball card quality profile which includes his individual batting

As in 2020

close-ups of the outstanding plays can only be expected from NEO•GEO. And what else would baseball be without a good pitcher-batter fight. The camera will zoom in to get the best shot of the crowd pleaser. The boys of summer are back in the long awaited sequel of sequels, Baseball Stars 2.

Baseball Stars 2 is the first of the "second wave software" and it is what you have all been waiting for.
